STATUS UPDATE/CONFIDENTIAL MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable Samuel H. Mays, Jr.
United States District Judge

On January 10, 2005, Your Honor signed a Petition on Probation and Supervised Release authorizing the issuance of a summons for Ms. Albonetti in order to address a violation of her supervision. The violation was based on her failure to complete six (6) months in the Community Corrections Center (halfway house). On February 2, 2005, she appeared before Magistrate Vescovo for an Initial Appearance whereby she was released on her own recognizance. She is currently in federal custody due to a warrant for violation of her bond conditions.

Assistant United States Attorney Rae Oliver contacted this officer today requesting this violation be dismissed. She explained she has received information that the Federal Bureau of Investigation is investigating allegations of sexual misconduct by employee(s) of the halfway house towards residents. Ms. Albonetti was discharged from the halfway house a short time after she made an allegation of sexual misconduct by an employee. In light of this new information, it is requested the petition filed with the Clerk's Office on January 14, 2005, be dismissed.
